

DIFFERENT PHOTOS FOR A DIFFERENT YEAR

No tradeshow floor, no ELEVATOR WORLD booth and no professional photo backdrop prompted some Ellies winners to think outside the box when it was time to take their photos. EW received several Zoom meeting group shots that showed the smiling faces of entire teams and one creative submission from Colley Elevator Co.'s Craig Zomchek, which, although interesting, did not fit into our layout scheme. Wearing masks, the Lerch Bates Inc. team stepped

Colley Elevator's Craig Zomchek

The Lerch Bates Inc. team outside their Denver offices

Members of the Otis team in their home offices

The Unitec team in their home offices outside their Global Support Center offices in Denver on a cool, sunny day to pose for the shot. The team from Unitec posed in their respective home offices. Otis did likewise. Zomchek shared that Colley's photo shows him standing on the top of a seven-stop hydraulic elevator car that was being modernized at a condo building in Chicago's River West, part of a Chicago Fire Department's Code update. 🌐

CASTROL LUBECON

BEST SUPPLIER — OTHER

HEADQUARTERS: WHITE CLOUD, MICHIGAN

RUNNER-UP: SMART ELEVATOR TECH, LLC
HEADQUARTERS: SAN FRANCISCO

CHAMPION ELEVATOR

BEST FAMILY-OWNED BUSINESS

HEADQUARTERS: NYC

RUNNER-UP: A&A ELEVATOR CORP.
HEADQUARTERS: PLANTATION, FLORIDA

(l-r) Joseph Corrado, executive vice president; Donald Gelestino, president; and Robert Masterson, president, modernization/ construction

COLLEY ELEVATOR CO.

BEST CONTRACTOR — NORTH

HEADQUARTERS: BENSENVILLE, ILLINOIS

RUNNER-UP: URBAN ELEVATOR SERVICE, LLC
HEADQUARTERS: CICERO, ILLINOIS

(l-r) Local 2 mechanic Joel Alfaro and apprentice Kurtis Kwak